Your STRATEGIC PARTNER and VIDEO PRODUCTION SOLUTION

MMG's Global Video Production Services Division is your strategic partner in building technical and creative teams for script-to-screen projects, in-house or on-location-studios shoots, live field events, training video projects, webcasts, and AV support — whether it's for a one-day project or long-term assignment.

Our team of Video Production Managers work closely with you to obtain your production goals. Our worldwide network of field camera and studio crews, Directors, Producers, Writers, and all supporting production staff will bring years of experience to your team, as well as broadcast-level, state-of-the-art technology if needed. No matter where in the world your audience may be, MMG will provide you with the best video production support that will make a lasting impression.
